GENERAL

PUBLICATIONS: NOTAM's, AIP's and AIC's

Effective date: 15 December 2017

Dear Fellow Aviator,

Recently, I have been asked to clarify the distribution of Notices to Airmen and Aeronautical Information.

Notices, Circulars and Supplements to publications are obtainable in 3 different ways:

1. On the SACAA website: <http://www.caa.co.za/Pages/Aeronautical%20Information/About-AI.aspx>
2. On the file2fly website: <https://file2fly.atns.co.za> - If you are a pilot and you are not already registered on this site, go register now.
3. Directly from the Tower where the NOTAM was issued.

Where can I obtain the latest NOTAM's?

A Summary of NOTAM effective and pre-flight information Bulletin will be posted on the CAA web-site on a daily basis. (except for weekends and public holidays). NOTAM in force are available from the Centralised Aeronautical Information Management (AIM) service center at O R Tambo International Airport on (Tel: 0860 FLY NOW (0860 359 669).

For further information see "Aeronautical Information" "Notam Summaries and PIB" on the web-site.

Where can I find the latest AIC's and AIP Supplements?

AIC's and AIP Supplements are published on the web-site under "Aeronautical Information".

Where can I find all the information relevant to aerodromes in South Africa?

In the Aeronautical Information Publication (AIP) which is on sale at the Publications Office of the CAA.

How often is the AIP, AIC and AIP SUP updated?

AIP Quarterly: (January, April, July and October) AIC and AIP SUP monthly in accordance with the AIRAC dates.

Happy Holidays and Fly Safe!
